

Sustainability Summit

This is to certify that completed the Sustainability Summit session in November 2025

The latest trends in designing for Health & Wellbeing

AACA Competency Standards related to these sessions:

Outline the ways in which the built environment has been shown to affect physical and mental health

Identify emerging trends in designing spaces that support physical, mental, and emotional health

Identify successful examples of designing for health and wellbeing

Explain how architects and developers are embedding wellbeing into the core of their practice

(Competency codes: PC 3, PC 25, PC 28)

